MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Proposed Briefing for Senior U. S. Naval Officers

REFERENCE : DTR Memorandum to the Executive Director-Comptroller, dated 14 October 1968, same subject

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation for your approval. The recommendation is contained in paragraph 5.

2. As you know, Vice Admiral Colwell and the Deputy Director have agreed to schedule the briefing discussed in referent memorandum for 6 November.

3. For consideration by you and the Executive Director-Comptroller,
I propose the following schedule:

1000-1030 A general briefing on the Agency's Role and Organization by the Executive Director-Comptroller

Adm Taylor will do

1030-1045 Coffee Break and Informal Discussion

1045-~~1230~~ 1145 A briefing on the Clandestine Services with particular emphasis on our unconventional warfare capabilities, especially maritime; functions of Agency representatives at military commands; our procedures to provide intelligence to major Naval commands; Covert Action as it applies to the Navy's interest in psychological warfare planning.

- ✓ 1230-1330 Lunch with the Deputy Director and the four Deputy Directors OK.
- 1330-1430 The Directorate for Science and Technology, particularly on our Research and Development Program DD/P
- ✓ 1430-1515 The Directorate for Support, stressing mutual capabilities for logistics support and recently developed communications equipment.
- ✓ 1515-1530 Coffee and Discussion Break
- ✓ 1530-1600 An informal session for questions and comments chaired by the Executive Director-Comptroller and attended by the Deputy Directors or their representatives. } Adm Taylor will do

4. Some of the admirals have indicated a current interest in our capability to support the Navy with intelligence and otherwise with respect to the [REDACTED] areas. This is not a precisely defined interest, and I do not think a special area briefing is in order. But it may be useful for the speakers to know that the subject could come up. Also, I believe they may have questions about the Agency's current activities in Vietnam.

5. I recommend that you approve or modify the proposed schedule outlined above so that we may contact the other Deputy Directors and additional speakers as required.
